

14

A 65 year old lady presented with history of pain abdomen and progressive jaundice of 1 month duration. On examination she was deeply jaundiced and per abdominal examination gall bladder was palpable.

Her liver function test reports are as follows ;

Total bilirubin was 16mg%
Conjugated bilirubin was 13mg%
SGOT - 62u/L
SGPT - 72u/L
Alkaline phosphatase - 600U/L

Prothrombin time was Control - 14 sec    Test - 24 sec

- What is your diagnosis ?
- What urine test will you ask in this patient and what do you expect?
- What investigations may be required to confirm the diagnosis?