

1. A Primigravida mother has come at 30 weeks of gestation with mild leaking. Discuss the approach to the case with neonatal management including prophylaxis for respiratory distress.
2. A three-week-old newborn baby is brought with jaundice. Discuss the approach to the case including work up for neonatal cholestasis.
3. Apnea of prematurity – Approach and medications.
4. Controlled Therapeutic Hypothermia – indications and procedure.
5. Neonatal Resuscitation – Current Guidelines.
6. Cell free fetal DNA – Applications.
7. Neonatal seizures – Etiopathogenesis and management.
8. Ensuring nutrition and Establishing feeding in a preterm baby.
9. Discuss the risk factors, etiopathogenesis, clinical features and management of necrotising enterocolitis.
10. Describe the stages, screening and treatment options of retinopathy of prematurity.

* * * * *

www.FirstRanker.com