

Max Marks:75

1) Join the following sentence to make one complete sentence without using 'but', 'and' or 'so': (3 Marks)

- a) Jack lost the prize. He tried his best.
b) You tell me the truth. I shall punish you.
c) He was afraid of being late. He ran.

- a) I wondered whether the news (can, could, shall) be true.
b) He (could, can, should) be here by now, he left the house at ten.
c) You (must, shall, might) improve your spelling.

- a) Your (male, mail) has arrived.
b) That is the king's (thrown, throne).
c) I (ate, eight) a slice of cake.

- a) He always expresses anger.
i) politeness ii) sadness iii) rage
- b) Smoking is forbidden in public places.
i) encouraged ii) prohibited iii) appreciated
- c) She has pity for animals.
i) pride ii) hatred iii) sympathy

- a) Optimist b) Theist c) Ugly

- a) Write a report about the Fun week conducted in your college.
or
b) As a reporter of a local newspaper write a report about an accident witnessed by you.

- a) What I enjoy doing most in my leisure time. b) Value of games.
c) A visit to the Book Fair. d) Manners reveal character.

- a) Festivals symbolize the victory of good over evil. b) The leader I like the most.
c) How to keep fit and fine? d) Child labour

- In the essay, "The Law is a Jealous Mistress", what is the author trying to say?
 "Advocacy is not a gift of god." Explain this sentence with reference to the essay, "Five Functions of a Lawyer."
 "These shots were not an outrage; they were a precautionary operation." Explain this sentence with reference to the essay, "On the Reasonable Murder of a Police Constable."
 Do you agree that the trial described in the essay, "In the Court", is fair? Give reasons.
 What is the advice given in the essay, "Advice to a Young Man interested in going into Law", by Felix Frankfurter?
 What caused Mahatma Gandhi not to ask for mercy. Explain the reasons stated in the essay, "A Plea for the Severest Penalty, upon his conviction for sedition."

◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆