

The West Bengal University of Health Sciences
MBBS. 3rd Professional Part-II Examination, 2016

Subject: Medicine

Paper: I

Time: 2 ½ hrs.

Full Marks: 60

---

Attempt all questions. The figures in the margin indicate distribution of marks in each Question

Use separate answer script for each group

Group-A

1. Define cirrhosis of liver. Enumerate the stigma of chronic liver disease. Enumerate the complications of chronic liver disease. How will you manage a patient of severe haematemesis due to portal hypertension?

2+2+2+4

Group-B

2. a) A 50 year old diabetic patient has been brought to the emergency room in a comatose condition. How do you differentiate the different causes? Briefly outline the management of diabetic Ketoacidosis.

5+5

OR

- b) A young male patient has been admitted with high fever with chill and rigor since last 5 days and has become drowsy since last night. What is the likely diagnosis and how will you manage the patient?

2+8

Group-C

3. Write short notes on (any five) :

5x4

- a) Urinary casts.
b) Hypovitaminosis D
c) Atypical angina
d) Iodine deficiency disorder

- e) Delusion
- f) Clinical features differentiating small and large bowel diarrhoea.
- g) Management of organophosphorus poisoning

Group-D

4. Answer in brief on any five of the following : 5x4

- a) Post exposure prophylaxis of Hepatitis B.
- b) H. pylori infection
- c) Diagnostic criteria of SLE.
- d) Dengue shock syndrome.
- e) Pneumothorax.
- f) Vitiligo
- g) Clubbing

*****

firstRanker.com
www.FirstRanker.com