rstRanker Compeled diagrams wherever necessary.

LONG ESSAranker's choice

www.FirstRanker.com

www.FirstRanker.com Marks

- 1. Describe the origin of thrombi with examples.
- 2. Define pyelonephritis. Explain aetiopathogenesis of acute pyelonephritis.

SHORT ESSAY

10 X 5 = 50 Marks

10 X 3 = 30 Marks

- 3. Enumerate the differences between dystrophic and metastatic calcification.
- 4. Explain the cytological changes in dysplasia.
- 5. Explain the role of antidiuretic hormone in causation of oedema.
- 6. Explain the causes of ischaemia in heart and arteries with examples.
- 7. Explain the role of environmental and cultural factors in development of neoplasia.
- 8. Describe pathogenesis of rheumatoid arthritis.
- 9. Define and classify leukaemia.
- 10. Describe the mechanism of backward and forward heart failure.
- 11. Describe the gross and microscopic features in the stage of red hepatisation.
- 12. Define acute gastritis. Explain aetiology of acute gastritis.

SHORT ANSWERS

- 13. Classify emboli depending upon the flow of blood.
- 14. Explain the significance of lipoproteins in hyperlipidaemia.
- 15. Enumerate three differences between conjugated and unconjugated hyperbilirubinaemia.

Let.com

- 16. Define hypersensitivity reaction.
- 17. Explain three microscopic features of infarct.
- 18. Mention the stages of alcoholic hepatitis.
- 19. List types of leprosy.
- 20. Describe the cerebrospinal fluid findings in bacterial meningitis.
- 21. List types of cervicitis.
- 22. List three features of wet beri beri.

www.FirstRanker.com