

1. Write notes on Angiosomes and its clinical application.
2. Write notes on anatomy of the Facial nerve.
3. Write notes on anatomy of superficial muscular aponeurotic system and its clinical application in face lift.
4. What is normal occlusion? Who described it? What is the concept of favourable and unfavourable fractures of the mandible? Describe in detail with relation to anatomy.
5. Write notes on principles of Z plasty and its uses. Describe the transposition flap.
6. Describe the surgical anatomy of superficial temporal fascia and enumerate its clinical application.
7. Classify peripheral nerve injuries. Write notes on investigations to assess peripheral nerve injury.
8. Write notes on septic shock.
9. How do you classify vascular anomalies? Write short note on vascular malformations.
10. Write notes on anterolateral thigh flap, with details on surgical anatomy, flap dissection and clinical application.

* * * * *

www.FirstRanker.com