

[illegible]

- a. Bellowing in bovine.
- b. Artificial insemination in cattle.
- c. Dressing percentage in broilers.
- d. Inbreeding in farm animals.
- e. Feeding of colostrums to calves.
- f. Mohair production in goats.
- g. Disbudding in bovines.
- h. Flushing of sheep.
- i. Culling of farm animals.
- j. Bull is half of the herd.

SECTION-B

- Q2. How will you manage a buffalo before and after parturition?
- Q3. What is the physiology of milk secretion and different milking methods in farm animals?
- Q4. How the feeding of poultry differs from feeding of livestock?
- Q5. Enlist the common diseases of farm animals and poultry.
- Q6. What are the selection procedures and various systems of breeding in livestock?

SECTION-C

- Q7. What are the functions of housing for farm animals? Explain the merits and demerits of different types of animals housing systems.
- Q8. What are the measures to improve the fertility in various species of farm animals?
- Q9. What are the symptoms of ill health in poultry birds and how we can reduce the mortality at the poultry farm?