SECTION-B

- Q2) Describe the dialogue between the poet and God in the poem “The Soul’s Prayer”.
- Q3) Write a short summary of the story “The Doctor’s Word”.
- Q4) Translate the following passage into Hindi or Punjabi :

It often seems strange that men endanger their lives trying to reach the tops of tall snow bound mountains. If we investigate why they do so, we have to refer to the lure of mountains. The tall mountains throw a challenge to human capacity and men rush to meet that challenge. They reach the top of a mountain after overcoming numerous hazards and they feel the triumph of a hero.

- Q5) Write a letter to a computer manufacturing firm for cancelling the order of 20 computers that you had given for your Institution.
- Q6) Write the antonyms of the following words : Profit, Giant, Modern, Blessing, Attack.

SECTION-C

- Q7) Analyse and interpret the following passage in your own words :

Our ancestors were as advanced in science and technology as we are today. Such a claim, in order to be taken seriously, has to be based on concrete evidence. Evidence could come in terms of artifacts surviving the ravages of time or through manuscripts. The former were helpful in revealing the developed society status of the Harappan Indus valley civilization. Here development does not mean high technology but a well laid out town plan and social infrastructure. The ruins of Nalanda in Bihar give a reasonable good picture of an ancient residential university, again with a well planned infrastructure.

- Q8) Write an essay on “Importance of Traditional Values and Morals”.
- Q9) Describe all the parts of speech. Also describe the types of sentences.
